THE GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From THURSDAY January 19th, to MONDAY January 23d, 1749.

LONDON, October 29.

WE hear that the Hon. East-India Company have received a Letter over Land, with Advice, that the French had made a second Attempt upon Fort St. David's, with all the Force they could get together; but that it prov'd ineffectual, and that they were beaten off with very considerable Loss.

The same Day a Court of Hustings was held at Guild-Hall, when the Right Hon. Sir William Calvert, Knt. Lord Mayor Elect, was sworn in, and had the City Regalia and the Keys of the several Goals delivered to him according to annual Custom.

LONDON, November 1.

They write from Hamburgh, that they had Letters from Stockholm which gave an Account, that the Merchants of that City had contracted with the Court of France to build her 10 Men of War in a limitted time.

By a private Letter from Cadiz we have an Account, that the Court of Spain have received certain Advice, that the Moors intended suddenly to besiege Oran; upon which his Catholick Majesty has thought fit to lay an Embargo upon all the Vessels in his Ports, that he may be in a Condition to transport, without Delay, a considerable Body of Forces thither, under the Command of the Marquis de la Mina It is also said, that the Troops which are at present in the Service of the Republic of Genoa will be likewise sent to Africa.

We learn from Paris, that the Count de Maurepas has abundance of projects upon the Carpet for the Improvement of the Marine, for extending and promoting Commerce, and for rendering navigable several Rivers in the Heart of the Kingdom, and for opening canals between those that are navigable already. As the Execution of these projects must be attended with a very large Expence, so his Excellency proposes, that the Charges which may be incurred by those that are last mentioned, shall be defrayed, in a great Measure, by the voluntary Subscription of the Inhabitants of those Provinces that are to receive most Benefit therefrom.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Hallifax is appointed first Lord of Trade and Plantations, in the room of the Lord Monson deceased.

The Chevalier Servandoni has received final Orders, we are told for finishing, with all Expedition, the Building for the Fireworks, after his Plan and Model in the Green-Park, facing the Queen's Library: And we are further assured he has given the necessary Directions for that purpose, doubled the Number of Hands, and that they will actually begin upon the same in a few Days.

We hear that his Excellency the Earl of Sandwich will soon be created a Knight of the Garter.

LONDON, November 3.

By Letters received on Monday from Aix-la-Chapelle, we have Advice, that the British, French and Dutch Ratifications of the Definitive Treaty of Peace were arriv'd there, the Exchange whereof was thought would be made in a few Days.

We hear that Thursday 7-night is appointed for the proclaiming of the Peace, in case his Majesty is not detained by contrary Winds; and that his Majesty has signified his Intention of going to St. Paul's on the Thanksgiving Day, which will be afterwards appointed.

It is said, that a certain Nobleman, equally venerable for his Age, and respected for his unblemished Probity, is resolved to make use of the Authority vested in him by his great Office, to revive the antient Discipline, and restore the Reputation and Prosperity of a certain famous University, in which Luxury, Indolence, and a Contempt of Authority, hath been long prevailing.

Tuesday the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's London, met at the Charter-House in St. Paul's Church Yard, and elected Dr. Sherlock Bishop of Salisbury, into the See of London, in the Room of Dr. Gibson.

BRISTOL, November 5.
